

Why not make an annual donation or bequest to the Diabetes Care Trust (ABCD) Limited (Registered Charity 1139057)?

Whilst we realise that there are innumerable worthwhile charities that are looking for your help, by supporting DIABETES CARE TRUST (ABCD) LIMITED, you will be doing something very worthwhile to directly benefit practical diabetes care. Your donations will be used to support the charitable objectives of the trust which are to advance and encourage the education and training of all medical and other health care professionals involved with the care of those with diabetes, to advance the knowledge and of the public in all matters relating to diabetes mellitus and diabetes care. To support diabetes clinical research and audit aimed at improving our understanding of diabetes. These activities are intended to improve the health of people with diabetes and avoid complications of the condition. Whatever you can afford to give will be very gratefully received and used to very good purpose. The work of the Trust is largely carried out by un-paid volunteers so administrative overheads are minimal.

Cheques should be made payable to Diabetes Care Trust (ABCD) Limited and sent to the address given below. If you are considering leaving a legacy to help people with diabetes it is vital to include our full name in your Will: Diabetes Care Trust (ABCD) Limited - Registered Charity 1139057 to make sure your gift reaches us. Your solicitor can give you more information about this. You can find a solicitor in your area through the Law Society. Alternatively you could contact The Institute of Professional Willwriters.

All donations will be acknowledged promptly.
The Trust is very grateful for whatever help you are able to give.
